

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me
lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.

*I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;*
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies
Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
- Psalm 23

In Loving Memory Of Dolores Lorraine Schneider

January 8, 1929 - March 1, 2021

Dolores was born on January 8, 1929, to Eldred and Beatrice (Graue) Brenna at the family farm in McKenzie County. She was baptized and confirmed in the Lutheran faith. Dolores graduated from Sanish High School. After graduation, she attended cosmetology school and then worked as a hairdresser at a beauty salon. After WWII, she rekindled her friendship with Joe Schneider, 175th Army Infantryman, which led to their marriage on May 24, 1948 at the Keene First Lutheran Church.

Joe and Dolores lived in Williston where she actively participated in bible studies as well as being recognized for long-term volunteering at Mercy Hospital. Over the years, Dolores was employed by ASCS, Amerada Hess, and Midwest Motors. The family enjoyed camping, fishing, and boating trips to McKenzie Bay. Camping evolved into a summer home at Paradise Point which provided additional outlets of dirt biking and golfing. Dolores enjoyed bowling, square dancing, and playing bridge or pinochle card games with family and friends. She was a member of First Lutheran Church, Gloria Dei Lutheran Church, the Moose and the Elks.

She leaves her children: daughter, Deanne Erie and son, Todd (Jurhee) Schneider of Mesa, and daughter Vikki (Mark) Osborn of Phoenix; grandsons Andrean (Andrea) Osborn, Alex (Kayla) Osborn, and Joseph Osborn; great granddaughter Elodie Osborn; sisters Eleanor Washburn and Colleen Sherven, brother Owen Brenna, and many nieces and nephews.

Preceding Dolores in death were her husband, Joe; her parents; brother Clayton Brenna, sisters Arline Brenna, Evelyn Buerkle, Fern Ellestad, Joan Brenna, and Elaine Doll; her beloved grandson, Trevor Erie.

Come to me,
all you who are weary and burdened,
and I will give you rest.

MATTHEW 11:28
