Two roads
diverged in a wood
and I, I took the one less traveled by,
and that has made
all the difference.

-Robert Frost

God's Garden

God looked around the garden,
And found an empty space.
He looked down upon the earth,
And saw your tired face.
He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
For He only takes the best.
He knew that you were weary,
and He knew you were in pain.
He knew that you would never be well on earth again.
He saw the roads were getting rough,
and the hills were hard to climb.
So He closed your weary eyelids,
and whispered peace be thine.

Joshua "Josh" K. Garrison, 37, of Williston, ND passed away on Sunday, September 4, 2022 at the CHI St. Alexius Health in Williston, ND.

Josh was born on October 26, 1984 at Andrews Air Force Base in Prince Georges County, MD to David "Kenny" Kendall Garrison and Kimberly "Kim" Ann Denison Duvall. Josh spent most of his life in Anne Arundel County, MD and was a 2003 graduate of Old Mill High School in Millersville, MD.

Josh had a deep love for anything automotive, and he worked as an automobile technician most of his life. He also loved movies, his favorite being Top Gun and his favorite TV show was Friends—both of which he watched over and over and could quote from each. He loved music, and could often be found singing along with his favorite songs and groups. But perhaps his greatest love was for his family, especially his children, Kylie and Maverick.

He is survived by his father Kenny Garrison; his mother Kim and stepfather Jed Duvall; his children, Kylie Jane Garrison and Maverick Kendall Garrison; his sisters, Kristi Jane Haven, Erica Smith, and Jessica Garrison; his brother; Jeremy Horst; and many cousins, nieces and nephews, who will all dearly miss his laughter and his love.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the day
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love we once shared—
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Maker's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows
In doing good deeds—
Miss me, but let me go.
