

*There is no place
that we can go
where Jesus hasn't been.
There is no battle
we can fight
that He didn't
fight and win.
The victories of our dear Lord
He's given to us to share
So when your heart is heavy
cast on Him
your every care.
And when that
final day does come
we can shout
with great elation.
As we join the
heavenly angels
In the victory celebration!*

Roy Melvin Clark went to his eternal home on October 6, 2022, at the age of 92. Roy was born at his country home in Greene, ND on September 9, 1930 to Ada and Roy L. Clark of Grano, ND. He attended grade school in Greene, ND and graduated from Lansford High School in 1948.

He served in the U.S. Air Force as a Russian linguist from 1952-1955 during the Korean War and was honorably discharged.

Roy and Marge had known each other since elementary school, he married the love of his life, Marjorie Satterlund, on December 23, 1955, in Minot, ND. They are the epitome of a relationship based on Faith, Love, and ever present Support. Six children were born to this union.

Roy attended Minot State Teacher's College (1955-1959) receiving his Bachelor's Degree in Education and began a six year teaching career at Harvey High School where he taught English and Drama. His love of literature and poetry resonated with him throughout his entire life, writing many poems for his children and grandchildren.

In 1967, they moved to Williston, ND as he was actively recruited by Blue Cross Blue Shield of ND to become an insurance representative for Western North Dakota, where he was highly respected for his honesty, integrity, and customer service. He retired in 1992 and became very actively involved in numerous organizations, including Bethel Lutheran Home Board, Williston Boys Baseball Committee, Korner Lions Club where he was a charter member and served as president. He was a charter member of Gloria Dei Lutheran Church and served in various other capacities to include church council president and doing lay ministry. One of his most entertaining roles there was being a member of the "So Nice Circle."

His grandchildren have fond memories such as "grandpa's pancakes," his entertaining stories, his poems, playing games, and being present at many of their sporting events and activities. His children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren were the pride and joy of his life.

Roy is survived by his loving wife of 66 years, Marjorie; five children, Vicki (Bruce) Loyland of Thompson, ND, Randy (Letty) Clark of San Antonio, TX, Debbie (Dean) DeMoe of Williston, ND, Shelly Lynch of Williston, ND, Todd Clark of Fargo, ND; fourteen grandchildren, Brandon (Abby) Weltikol, Tara (Zac) Peterson, Tyler DeMoe, Brandi Clark, Collin Lynch, Randy Roy Clark, Jaden Lynch, McKenna (Rhett) Wolter, Johanna Loyland, Samantha Clark, Cameron Clark, Trey Lynch, Preston Clark, Parker Clark; great-grandchildren, Dallas Weltikol, Kyree Clark, Wyatt, Ada, and Oakley Peterson, with another great-grandson due in February; brother, Harold (Carol) Clark; sister-in-law, Janet Clark; numerous nieces and nephews.

He is preceded in death by his parents; siblings, Burton, James, Ethel, Mavis, Helen and Gertrude. He was also preceded in death by an infant son, Rodney James.

He leaves a legacy of unwavering faith, strength of character, love of family, the "Golden Rule," sense of humor, his story telling, and a faithful servant of God.
