

In Loving Memory

Doris May Homer

Born to Theodore & Elsie Schilke
June 23, 1936 ~ Wildrose, North Dakota

Called Home to Her Heavenly Father
February 13, 2024 ~ Tioga, North Dakota

Memorial Service

Saturday, May 18, 2024 ~ 11:00 AM
Grace Lutheran Church
Wildrose, North Dakota

Officiating

Pastor Mike Burns

Speaker

Tyler Schilke

Scripture Readings

Philippians 1: 9-11
Philippians 4: 4-9
Psalm 25

Music

"Beneath The Cross Of Jesus"
"The Old Rugged Cross"
"Amazing Grace"

Cindy Hanson ~ Accompanist

Honorary Urn Bearers

All of Doris' Loving Family & Friends

Final Resting Place

Wildrose Cemetery
Wildrose, North Dakota

Arrangements By

Fulkerson Stevenson Funeral Home
Tioga, North Dakota

In Loving Memory

Doris Homer

June 23, 1936 - February 13, 2024

In you,
Lord my God
I put my trust
Psalm 25:1

Doris Homer, 87, of Wildrose, North Dakota entered eternal rest on Tuesday, February 13th, 2024 at Tioga Hospital where she passed away peacefully in her sleep. Doris May (Schilke) Homer was born June 23, 1936 in Wildrose, North Dakota to Theodore and Elsie (Woodside) Schilke. Doris was the eldest and only girl of five children. She grew up on the family farm eight miles north of Wildrose in Divide County.

Her education began at Highland School #3 attending rural grade school. She stayed at various homes in Wildrose while attending high school. She worked at Rood's Roost Café in Wildrose, the summer of 1953, after school and weekends during her senior year of high school, and the summer of 1954. During the 1930's Roods Roost building was a doctor's office and hospital where Doris had been born. After she graduated from Wildrose High School in 1954 she attended Minot State Teachers College on a rural scholarship for one year between 1954 and 1955. After graduating she taught for two years between 1955 and 1957 at Highland #3, the same school she attended as a child. The school was only a half mile from the homestead where she grew up. She taught her two youngest brothers along with many of the other local children she knew.

Doris attended Missouri Synod Church until 1957 when she joined Grace Lutheran Church in Wildrose ND. She was a faithful member who enjoyed worship with the congregation. She taught Sunday school for many years and was part of the Women of Grace. She participated in many church activities throughout the years.

Doris married Charles Harris Homer on December 28th, 1956 in Minot, ND. To this union their son, Jess was born in 1960. In 1956 they built a home in Wildrose where they both continued to live until their passing. Doris actively helped Charles farm as well as handle all the finances.

Doris was an active member in Wildrose Senior Citizens for many years as well as Treasurer for 12 of those. She participated in their many events and especially had fun playing cards with her friends there. She also enjoyed texting and playing games on her smart phone and never missed Wheel of Fortune.

Gardening is one of the things she loved to do, although in her last few years she couldn't get out to tend to her flowers as she would have liked. She was known for the beautiful flower garden around her house. The purple Iris was her favorite flower. She also had a large vegetable garden which fed the family and neighbors throughout the summer season. Many of her nieces and nephews have fond memories of picking fresh peas from her garden as well as candy shopping at Eva's Store when it was open.

Doris loved getting together with her brothers and their families during the holidays. She would always bring her homemade buns as they were one of the family favorites. She loved meeting everyone at Lonnie's Roadhouse in Williston on Thursdays for breakfast. Doris also enjoyed researching family genealogy and did extensive family histories for both sides of the family. Doris will be missed by all.

Doris is survived by her son, Jess of Wildrose, ND; brothers, Wesley (Linda) Schilke of Williston ND, Edward (Charlotte) Schilke of Watford City, ND and Mesa AZ, Larry (Sandy) Schilke of Williston, ND, and Wayne (Karen) Schilke of Rugby, ND; sister-in-law, Dolores McCord of Healdsburg, CA; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Doris is preceded in death by her husband, Charles; parents, Theodore and Elsie; and brothers-in-law, James (Wanda) Homer, Francis Homer, and Gene Homer.

Memorials may be made to Wildrose Area Cemetery c/o Karla Magnuson, PO Box 632, Wildrose ND 58795, Wildrose Public Transportation, PO Box 123, Crosby ND 58730 or charity of your choice.